Tory's arrangement, though not alphabetical in the modern sense, has been followed exactly, the French word or phrase being added when the translation belongs under a different letter. The pagination of the present edition is substituted for the folios of the original.*

List of Latin and French Words mentioned in this Work, according to the numbers of the Folios, and in Alphabetical order.*

A

(Aage) Life everlasting, in the writings of the Egyptians 183
A is a triangular letter 26
A as vowel, syllable & word 79
A as interjection 79
A is used to indicate the beginning 78
A inverted 84
A with a compass 85
A M O 80
Ab aure rejuncti 4
Abbreviations, French 124
Acrisius 74
Aeneas 67
Aevum (Aage) 183
African Letters 179, 180
Aha 80, 111
Ah & Vah 110
Ajax 25
Alpha 78
(Alemans) Germans 101, 103, 111, 146
(Amoureux) Lovers 103
Angelus 17
Apostrophe 138
(Apices) Points 162, 163
Argus 19, 20
Arius, his inordinate use of the aspirate 110, 111
Arabic Letters 179, 180
Attached by the ear 6
Aurenges 52
Augeratus 97

B

Bacchus 74
Basiliscus serpens 183
Basilisk, immortal serpent 184
(Belle fable) A fine fable 19, 64
(Beau segret) A fine riddle in Virgil 39
Beatrice 117
(Beotes) Bœotians 139
Bourges 103, 135, 155
Burgundians 120
(Breve) Short sentence 133
Bretons 135, 142
Bruges 115

C

C is a Latin Letter 91
C for G 103
(Caqueteurs) Great talkers have their tongues pierced 7
(Canetieres) Duck ponds in Rome 9
Carolus 117
Cappadocians 117
Cappa 117
Cadeaulx (Letters) 174, 175
Ceres 74
Ce, as suffix 91
CT 143
Charon 6
Charlemagne 14
Chartres 14
Cheopine and Pinte are derived from the Greek 17
Chain of Gold in Homer 64

(Chancon ancienne) Old ballad 90
CHRISTVS 110
Chi 118
Chut [ST] 141
Cilicians 117
Cygnus 17
(Corps) Units 30
(Corps) Units of the letter 30
Comparison of Man with an I 47
Compass and Rule 85
Coliseum, the, in Rome 126
Confirmation of the tradition herein set forth concerning the Attic letters 155
Correspondence of Greek and Latin letters 168
Conclusion of this Book, with its fine reasoning 159
Cretans 117
Cross, the 77

D

D is a purely Latin letter 94
Dame Memory 39
Danæ 74
Dames of Lyons 84, 96
Dames of Paris 84, 138
Dactyl 112
Dagues 164
(Degres) Stairs and stairways of the Ancients 49, 50
Decorum 57
(Decem Nestores) Ten Nestors 65
Delta 94
Deltolon 94
(Decies centum) Ten hundred 115
Diverse opinions concerning the invention of letters 13, 14
Difference in meaning between Minerva and Pallas 46
Division of the human face 52, 53
(Dix hommes) Ten men like Nestor 65
(Dix corps) Ten units in each letter 65
Diphthong AE 80
(Dittes) Say 'Io' to denote joy 90
Digamma, Æolian 99, 100, 146
Definition of the Point 157, 158
Division of the equilateral Square 81
Divers names of letters used in Printing 174
Double letters 62
Dreux 14
(Droicte) Straight line, the 30
Druids 14
Δρυιδαι 14

E

(Ecossois) Scotch, the 96, 97
Egyptians, the 105
(Elle) the letter L is reversed [rebus] 120
Empsitem 12
Enigma, a strange and noteworthy 44, 45
Eneas 67
Ephesians, the 77
Epitaph in Picard dialect 93
Epitaph, an ancient, found at Lyons 100
(Escripture antique) Ancient writing 91

GEOFROY TORY Champ Fleury GEORGE B. IVES, TRANSLATOR NEW YORK, 1927 THE LESSING J. ROSENWALD COLLECTION, LIBRARY OF CONGRESS Octavo